

MUTUAL NON-DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

DogeTrades Group LLC · PicksDb · Ronald Kruck

This Mutual Non-Disclosure Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into as of April 19, 2026 ("Effective Date") by and between DogeTrades Group LLC, a limited liability company and operator of the PicksDb platform ("DogeTrades"), and Ronald Kruck, an individual ("Kruck"). DogeTrades and Kruck are each a "Party" and together the "Parties."

Purpose. The Parties intend to engage in detailed discussions regarding PicksDb, including without limitation: the business model and strategy; revenue, pricing, and fee structures; proprietary software, source code, architecture, and technical methods; product and engineering roadmaps; business plans and financial projections; users, partners, and operations; and other non-public materials DogeTrades may share to evaluate a potential relationship (collectively, the "Purpose").

Confidential Information. "Confidential Information" means any non-public information disclosed by a Party ("Disclosing Party") to the other ("Receiving Party") for the Purpose, in any medium, that is designated confidential or that reasonably should be understood to be confidential, including the categories described in the Purpose.

Obligations. The Receiving Party shall use Confidential Information solely for the Purpose; hold it in strict confidence using no less than reasonable care; and not disclose it to any third party without the Disclosing Party's prior written consent, except to advisors, counsel, or employees with a strict need to know who are bound by confidentiality obligations no less protective than this Agreement.

Exclusions. Confidential Information does not include information that the Receiving Party can document: (i) is or becomes public without breach of this Agreement; (ii) was lawfully known without restriction prior to disclosure; (iii) is independently developed without use of Confidential Information; or (iv) is received from a third party without confidentiality duties.

Term; Deal; Public disclosure. The confidentiality and non-use obligations in this Agreement remain in full force until the Parties execute a definitive written agreement that expressly governs confidentiality, use, and/or public disclosure with respect to the subject matter of their discussions (a "Deal"), at which time the terms of that Deal shall control to the extent they address the same matters. Until a Deal is signed (or the Parties execute a mutual written release), neither Party shall publicly disclose or misuse the other Party's Confidential Information except as permitted herein. Trade secrets shall receive protection for so long as they qualify under applicable law. Nothing herein obligates either Party to enter into a Deal.

General. No license to intellectual property is granted by this Agreement. Upon request, the Receiving Party shall return or destroy materials, subject to ordinary backup or legal retention. Breach may cause irreparable injury; equitable relief is available in addition to other remedies. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed under the laws of the State of Colorado, without regard to conflict-of-laws principles. The Parties consent to the exclusive jurisdiction and venue of the state and federal courts located in the State of Colorado. This Agreement is the Parties' entire understanding on confidentiality for the Purpose and may be amended only in writing. Counterparts and electronic signatures are permitted.
